

Prophetic Insight

Apostle J. David Dawley, 09/14/2011

Prayers for reformation and a revolution will not take place until the “sons” in the church begin to understand their place and that it has been by God’s grace — His true grace. The saints have been praying for revival and yet it has not been released because the church has not understood discipleship; all they have cared about is converts!

For this reason, God has not allowed it in America. If there was a revival in the way that we understand it (converts coming to God) the Muslims, Mormons and Jehovah witnesses would come in behind the “Spiritual Awakening” and create disciples out of them; thus, destroying the United States and the beliefs of our forefathers.

Until the church teaches TRUE discipleship and enters into an understanding of it, I don’t believe we will see a Great Awakening. Look at some of the countries in Africa, they have great “revivals” but it’s one of the fastest growing Muslim nations.

The Great Commission — Matthew 28:16–20

The 11 disciples traveled to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. When they saw Him, they worshiped, but some doubted. Then Jesus came near and said to them, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (HCSB)
